

Halloween Costume Contest

Ann "ScareCrow" Cotton

Carmen "Mariachi" Rodriguez

Wallace "Pimpin' McNary

MCHS had it's Annual Halloween Costume Contest. This year the holiday stirred up some interesting characters. Coleman Pediatrics was decked out as the crew from Oz. Ann Cotton won this year coveted 1st Place with her Scare Crow costume. Over at MCHS Women's Clinic Carmen Rodriguez serenaded the office with her mariachi music winning her 2nd Place. Then at Coleman Adult we had Wallace McNary dressed to the nines as a Pimp. Ironically his criminal friends, the MCHS Inmates were arrested by none other than Sergeant Janie in the back of the Coleman Clinic. They were our Honorable Group Effort this year.

Garage/Bake Sale Results

This year's 2nd Annual Garage/Bake Sale went off wonderfully. The events committee did a great job getting the word out and bringing in items to sell. There were tons of clothes, knickknacks, furniture, toys, books, plants, and goodies to sell. The turnout was great and the MCHS

Events Committee was able to raise $500.00 to help make our Holiday Banquet a blast. This will help cover decorations, DJ, Dance Floor, and door prizes. Thank you very much for all of you work and the support from all of the employees. On that note a special thank you needs to go out to Gloria So and the Providers at MCHS. They have helped raise $700.00 to assist in the previous costs mentioned. Just a reminder to all, our Holiday Banquet is December 11, 2009 @6:30 pm at the MCM FunDome.

MCHS Women's Clinic Shows Support!

October was Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Midland Community Healthcare Services Women's Clinic decided to show their support by wearing Breast Cancer Awareness Scrubs every Thursday in the month of October. Breast Cancer Awareness Month is globally recognized and people all across the world are showing support, raising money, and educating women about the importance of early detection.
